

U.S. Department of Energy
Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy

federal energy management program

Historic Preservation Learning Portal

A Cooperative Interagency Project to Assist Federal Agencies in Meeting Their Responsibilities Under the
National Historic Preservation Act

*202-354-6967
Constance Ramirez, Director*

Federal Preservation Institute, National Park Service constance_ramirez@nps.gov

U.S. Department of Energy
Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy

What is the HPL Portal?

An Internet site – www.historicpreservation.gov

A fast and direct link to more than 1,500 historic preservation websites

A concept matching search engine

Information in over 250 formats

Enables learning at your desk when you need it

Available to the public

Who Developed the HPL Portal?

- Federal Preservation Institute, a program of the National Park Service
- Federal Training Work Group meetings
- Funds provided by 17 Federal agencies
- Funds provided by 5 National Park Service programs
- Governing Team

Logins

- Available for anyone with a government or .edu email address
- Access thru LOGIN on Portal site
- Benefits:
 - Saved searches
 - “News” service
 - Community of Practice
 - Expert
 - Discussion Forums

Query: studies of energy efficiency and sustainability in historic buildings

- <http://www.historicseattle.org/projects/>
- <http://www.preservationidaho.org/>
- <http://www.epa.gov/region1/eco/energy>
- <http://www.npi.org/. . .Green-PM.pdf>
- <http://www.ptvermont.org/rypkema.htm>
- <http://www.english-heritage.org.uk/upload/pdf/>
- <http://www.nbm.org/Events/transcripts.html>

Next Steps for Portal

- Visualization of clustering
- Indexing SHPO compliance documents
- Increasing Federal agency participation
- Funding for FY 07
- Adding foreign language capability